

GREG G. MONAGHAN, M.D.

CURRICULUM VITAE

Kansas City Cancer Center
1000 E. 101st Terrace
Kansas City, Missouri 64131
(816) 333-1326
(816) 333-0086 Fax

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATION

Licensed to Practice Medicine:

Missouri	MD R9471
Kansas	04-30958

Board Certifications:

National Board of Medical Examiners	1979
-------------------------------------	------

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

University of Missouri	Columbia, MO
Hematology/ Medical Oncology Fellowship	1983
Internal Medicine Residency	1981
Doctor of Medicine	1978
Master of Science—Public Health	1977
Southwest Missouri University	Springfield, MO
Bachelor of Arts—Biology (Cum Laude)	1973

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Kansas City Cancer Centers	2004-Present
Private Practice in Columbia, MO Subspecialties of Hematology and Medical Oncology	1983-2004

PUBLICATIONS AND ABSTRACTS

“Late Onset Fanconi’s Anemia in Reference to Exposure to Environmental Agents.”
Monaghan, G. G., Farhangi, M., Davenport, S., Michalski, K. In preparation.

“Phase I Trial of Cytosine Arabinoside (ARA-C) and Cis-Platin (DDP) in Patients with Advanced Cancer.” Schilsky, R.L., Brown, H., Monaghan, G., Muscato, J.J., Perry, M.C. American Society of Clinical Oncology. Submitted. Annual Meeting 1983.

“G-CSF Improves Peripheral Blood Stem Cell (PBSC) Mobilization and Hematologic Reconstitution after High-Dose Chemotherapy.” Schwartzberg, L., West, W., Birch, R., Monaghan, G., Muscato, J., Wittlin, R., Hazelton, B.B. Proc ASCO 11:129. 1992.

“Successful Treatment of Adult Neuroblastoma (NB) with High Dose Chemotherapy and Autologous Bone Marrow Rescue.” Baeker, T., Monaghan, G., Muscato, J., Pittman, D. Proc ASCO 11:355. 1992.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American College of Physicians